The Midwest Victorian Studies Association announces

The Twenty-First Annual Walter L. Arnstein Prize for Dissertation Research in Victorian Studies

The Midwest Victorian Studies Association announces a prize of $1,500 for dissertation research in British Victorian Studies undertaken by a student currently enrolled in a doctoral program in a U.S. or Canadian university. Proposals may be submitted in literature, history, art history, or musicology but should have a significant interdisciplinary component that will render them of interest to scholars studying Victorian Britain across a range of disciplines, approaches, and subfields.

Forms are available at the MVSA Web site: www.midwestvictorian.org

The deadline for applications is 1 February 2012. All application materials should be submitted to

Julie F. Codell
School of Art MC1505
Arizona State University
Tempe, AZ 85287-1505

julie.codell@asu.edu
Fax: (480) 965-8338

The award will be announced at the Association's 2012 annual meeting, to be held at Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana, 20-22 April, 2012.

The Association reserves the right not to make an award in a given year if, in the opinion of reviewers, submissions do not justify it.
