

Because we're holding MVSA during Little 500 weekend at IU, hotels are already filling up. If you know for sure you are coming to MVSA, your best bet at finding a fairly inexpensive hotel room in Bloomington is to use Expedia or some other online discount travel provider. We encourage you to book as soon as possible to ensure a room.

Hotels with rooms held for MVSA at discount rates:

1) Comfort Inn

Just north of campus has set aside 30 rooms for MVSA (26 with king-size beds, 4 with two queen-size beds) at $119 per night before tax. Their phone number is (812) 650-0010. They will hold the rooms until March 9. You must stay two nights to get the discount rate.

2) Hampton Inn

Also north of downtown, has set aside 10 rooms, 5 with kings and 5 with two double beds, for $169 per night before tax. (That's a discount from their standard rate of $229). Their phone number is (812) 334-2100. They will keep the rooms for us till March 20. You must stay two nights to get the discount rates.

3) Days Inn

16 rooms are available in Days Inn, 7 singles at $89 before tax and 9 doubles at $99 before tax. MVSAers have until March 20 to reserve those rooms. Of course, for all hotels, tell the receptionists you are coming to MVSA. Like the other hotels, the Days Inn is on the north edge of town, about three miles from campus.

There are a few bed-and-breakfast places in Bloomington, and several nearby in Nashville, Indiana (16 miles east of Bloomington), as well as various standard hotels also in Nashville. This tourist town is located next to Brown County State park, which has more visitors each year than the majority of national parks. The park also has an inn, the Abe Martin Lodge.
